

FULL HOUSE SEES AMERICAN LEGION'S HOME TALENT PLAY

Baby Gets Biggest Hand in Finale—Leading Characters Show Much Training—Muscle Is Enjoyed.

The Washington Opera House was filled to overflowing last night to witness the American Legion's home talent show "Katcha-Koo" which pleased as all home talent offerings please.

The leading parts were taken by local people of past experience in such entertainments and they each did their part well. It would be hard to single out the better ones in the cast as all did remarkably well and no little credit is due the young women of the chorus who added much to the success.

The two specialties by Miss Dona Fitzgerald and a string band and Miss Annabell Hall and dancing chorus deserve special notice. Miss Fitzgerald's voice always attracts and Miss Hall's ability in dancing brought down the house.

Taken in all the entertainment was up to par and was worth the money. The American Legion is to be congratulated upon its first night's success. There is every reason to believe that the second night will prove the greatest success for the members of the cast will be somewhat over their stage fright, which by the way, was not noticed among the principals last night.

Little Margaret Catherine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dice of Sutton street, was by far the star of the grand finale. Dressed as Uncle Sam, the little star did not make her appearance until a few minutes before the curtain dropped by she received the applause of the audience and did not seem to mind it. The show was entertaining aside from the fact that the audience was personally interested in members of the cast, and Miss Nancye Galloway, under whose instructions the play was "brought out" deserves much credit for the most satisfactory manner in which the entertainment was presented.

What are you goin' to do?
Throw down your pole, chuck out your bait,
And say your fishin's through?"

An' fish, an' fish, an' wait
Until you've ketch'd a bucketful,
Or used up all your bait."

What are you goin' to do?
Throw up the sponge and kick yourself,
And growl, and fret, and stew?"

An' bait, and bait ag'in,
Until success will bite your hook,
For grit is sure to win."

BOY SHOTS SELF THROUGH SHOULDER, POLICE CONTEND

Lad Says He Was Shot From the Ohio Side of River But Powder Burns Tell Police Different Tale.

Allie Downs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Downs of West Third street, was shot through the left shoulder while on the river bank near the wharfbank about 6:30 o'clock last night. The lad is not seriously wounded.

At first young Downs contended that he was walking along the river bank when he heard the report of a gun from the Ohio side of the river, he then felt a stinging sensation in his left shoulder and realized that he was shot. Investigations by the police however, disclose that the shot was not fired from the Ohio side of the river for there are powder burns on the boy's coat showing that he was shot at close range.

Investigations by the police disclose that the lad had an old revolver and that he had reached the conclusion that he went to the river bank to try out the weapon and in trying it accidentally shot himself. Downs stoutly denies this conclusion of the police saying he had no revolver with him at the time of the accident. The gun could not be found and the police think it was tossed into the river to escape prosecution for carrying a deadly weapon.

GIRL TAKES LIFE AFTER MOTHER HAD REPROVED HER

Former Lewis County Girl Kills Herself at South Portsmouth When Mother Chided Her On Note.

Brooding over admonitions given by her mother late in the afternoon concerning a letter she had written to a boy, and over some money matters is thought to have caused Julia Gladys Sparks, 13 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sparks of East Portsmouth, formerly of Crum, Lewis county, to take her life by sending a bullet from a .32 caliber revolver through her heart about 6 o'clock while the remainder of the family was at the evening meal. The parents and friends are at loss to account for any other motive and the letter the young girl left bears out the motive advanced.

The parents are grief stricken over the girl's rash act and today the mother was in a serious condition, a physician being in almost constant attendance at the bedside. She is unconscious at times, the state of coma being brought on by her hysterical condition of last night.

The young girl had no doubt thought over the suicide for several hours for she had carefully written the note before sending the bullet through her heart. The note was taken by neighbors shortly after the shooting. In it the young girl explained where she had obtained some change she had in her possession and which her mother had questioned her about.

She also told her complete plans for taking her life and how she went into Mr. Burton's bedroom and got his gun. She bade "good-bye" to her father and mother and Mr. Burton.

KEHOE DECLINED TO HEAD CUT-OUT ORGANIZATION

Local Banker Says Duties Are Such That He Would Be Unable to Give Organization Time It Deserves.

Hon. James N. Kehoe, president of the Bank of Maysville, has declined the presidency of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Cutout Organization to which he was elected last week, according to an interview given today. Mr. Kehoe gives as his reason for declining the office to which he was elected, duties that would not permit him giving the organization the attention it deserves.

In this regard Mr. Kehoe said: "While I appreciate the kind compliments of the gentlemen having charge of that organization, in electing me as its president, and while I have been and still am ready to do anything within my power to aid the growers of tobacco, yet, my other business obligations are such as to make it impossible for me to accept the presidency of the organization mentioned. I was elected without my knowledge or consent, and upon being notified of my selection, immediately declined and have had no communication with any one on the subject since. I would not head any organization unless I could give sufficient time to it to properly discharge the duties of the position. My time is so taken up that I could not possibly find time for a proper discharge of the exacting duties of this new position."

TOBACCO RUSH IS CLEARING OUT WITH PROGRESS OF SALES

Prices on Today's Market Remain Steady With Little Tobacco Being Brought to the Market.

The big rush on the local market which started on last Saturday and extended over Monday is now being cleared up with the progress of the second sale for the week through the various warehouses. There is now plenty of room for delivery and there is little tobacco coming in because of the weather conditions.

Predictions are for warmer weather during the next few days and another rush to market is predicted.

Prices on today's markets were steady with the beginning of the week. A block was closed at the Growers and sales begun at the Peoples and Liberty.

SEEK OUTLET FOR KENTUCKY COAL TO THE SEABOARD

Kentucky Coal Operators Plan To Urge Railroad Company for Extension of Its Lines.

The election of officers and the adoption of a resolution providing that active steps be taken to push the movement during the coming year to secure an outlet to tidewater for the product of the Hazard district were the outstanding features of the afternoon session of the Hazard Coal Operators' Association at Lexington Tuesday. Between 75 and 100 prominent coal operators from Kentucky, Ohio, Tennessee and Illinois were in attendance.

A. L. Allais, of Chicago, was elected president of the association to succeed E. L. Douglas, of Cincinnati. As a token of appreciation of his services for the last two years as executive head of the association, retiring President Douglas was presented with a handsome gold watch.

Other officers of the association elected were John G. Smythe, Jenkins, Ky., vice president; H. E. Bullock, Lexington, treasurer, and R. A. Hord, Lexington, secretary, the last two named being reelected. Members of the executive committee chosen are J. T. Hatfield, Cincinnati; E. L. Douglas, Cincinnati; J. E. Johnson, Lexington; J. Henry Hall, Lexington; L. R. Jennings, Johnson City, Tenn.

The matter of an outlet for Kentucky coal and particularly the product of the Hazard district, to the Atlantic seaboard, for shipment to New England markets and abroad has been agitated for years by the operators, but progress in this direction was delayed by the war. During the coming year, however, an energetic effort will be made to have the L. and N. officials agree to extend the Eastern Kentucky division from its present terminus at Jenkins through the mountains to where it will connect with the trunk line running to the Atlantic seaboard, over which coal from the Hazard district could be shipped to Charleston and other Atlantic ports.

BRACKEN STORE IS ROBBED AND OTHERS ENTERED

Sheriff Follows Buggy Tracks From Stonewall and Finds Much Of Stolen Property On Farm.

Burglars broke into the general merchandise store of Ben Insko at Stonewall, near Germantown in Bracken county, Tuesday night, and carried away quite a large amount of goods, loss cannot be estimated at present. Buggy tracks could be plainly seen in the snow but no clew has been found as to the guilty person.

Deputy Sheriff Geo. Gibson, of Bracken county, accompanied by Ben Insko followed the buggy tracks from Mr. Insko's store across the Vermillion pike to the home of Henry Kalb on Pea Ridge. Search was made and overalls, sweaters, boys' clothing, neckties, cakes, crackers, and numerous other articles were found hidden in five different places on the farm. Mr. Kalb's son Frank is suspected, as he left his brother Dan's home at 10 o'clock Tuesday night for his father's home but failed to go there and at 5 o'clock Wednesday morning arrived again at the home of his brother. Before the Sheriff and Mr. Insko reached there, however, he had escaped across the hills.

On last Friday night burglars broke into the basement of the Union Mercantile Company, Germantown, but were frightened away before reaching the main part of the store. They also broke into the jewelry store of Charles Patterson, securing two watches and also broke into Samuel Browning's drug store.

We are satisfied, however, for it has always been our policy to terminate seasons of active selling in a manner calculated to bring the most good to our patrons and which will reflect creditably on the value-giving policy of this store.

EVERY SALE MUST BE FINAL. NO APPROVALS, EXCHANGES OR CHARGES. READ EVERY ITEM CAREFULLY.

The lots of many goods advertised are small, so an early response to this advertisement will be advantageous.

MIGRATORY BIRD PROTECTION NETS BIG FOOD VALUES

Large Sum Is Saved by the Protection Migratory Birds, the United States Department Shows.

Washington, D. C. — The passage of the migratory-bird treaty act, it is estimated, has resulted in a total return, in actual food value to the hunters of the United States, of more than $20,000,000. State officials have notified the Biological Survey of the United States Department of Agriculture that in Minnesota alone hunters report 2,058,400 ducks killed in 1919. As each of these birds may be considered to have a food value of at least 75 cents, the total return from them in food to this one state was about $1,500,000. If it had been possible to sell these birds, they would have brought twice that amount. The great value of game to the country is thus made evident.

That the passage and enforcement of the law preventing spring shooting and marketing of migratory game birds is now producing excellent results as pointed out by officials of the Biological Survey. Without such restrictions they say the game birds not only would be greatly reduced in numbers but in many instances would be brought near extinction. The Biological Survey, which is charged with the enforcement of the Federal law and regulations protecting migratory birds, is receiving reports from all sections of the country showing that with the protection now enjoyed by the birds, their numbers are increasing each year, and that they are returning in spring to numerous breeding grounds which they have deserted for several years.

In addition to the food value of the game thus assured by continued protection, the restrictions on shooting made by the law tend to perpetuate hunting as a sport. This has a recreational value through outdoor pursuit in building up the physical health and strength of the more than 7,000,000 hunters in the United States who go out with the guns every fall.

New York Letter

New York. — Suggestion has been made that in enlarging the New York police force in an effort to quell the present flock of hold-ups and burglaries, Commissioner Enright choose his new members from the "weaker" sex. That half of society seems to be more of a success at the job, even as amateurs, just now than do the masculine minions of the law. One New York woman recently captured a burglar in her apartment with a silver spoon; just crept up behind him and held it against the back of his neck. His revolver-trained imagination did the rest. And her girl tripped the burglar and then sat on him until the police arrived. And now Miss Edith Ward, the latest feminine thief catcher, surprised a burglar in her bedroom, promptly collared him and held him against the wall until a former army lieutenant came to the rescue. "Why, that was nothing at all," she said, simply. "Any girl would have done as much."

Gilda Varese is said by her friends to be happy this season in "Enter Madame," than she has ever been in any part she has played before. There is a simple reason for it, but not one you would hardly expect from this woman who has done such remarkable work in tragedy parts in the past, such as her blind girl in "The Jest" last year. It's clothes. "This is the first part Gilda has ever played in her life," one of her close friends said the other day, "where she could wear modish frocks. And she is as happy as a child about those lovely things that she could go into good shops and buy—not have made out or rage and tags." As she is one of the authors of the play, she probably wrote it with the idea of giving herself one real treat before going back to impoverished-seeming tragic roles.

It became almost more than American costumes could bear—the thought that their patrons must be one or even two weeks behind Paris and the Riviera in the adoption of a new sleeve curve or another inch off the skirt. So now, there has been perfected a code book, containing 2202 illustrations; pictures of cuffs, shoulder seams, collars, sashes, every possible incident in a woman's costume. Every picture is numbered. Behold! A model from the smartest Parisian dressmaker appears on the Rue de la Paix. Instantly every detail of her dress, hat coat, parasol, and powder box is cabled to New York, by number corresponding to the pictures in the code book, the next morning's papers can carry it all. And even before they are read the window dressers, acting on cables from the shops' Parisian representatives, will have all ready for you to gaze at.

Jno. T. Bramel, retired bookkeeper, 108 West Front street, Maysville, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been of great advantage to me and I contribute fourteen years of my life to them. It was some years ago that I found I had kidney trouble and suffered severely with it. After a long course of Doan's Kidney Pills I became well and had no trouble for many years. Just recently I noticed my kidneys were again out of order and my system was generally weak. I knew it was a return of the trouble. I did not lose any time in getting a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they have given me the same good results and I consider them a wonderful remedy." (Statement given November 15, 1916.)

On November 22, 1920, Mr. Bramel said: "I couldn't recommend a better remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills after the benefit they were to me when I was about down and out with the worst form of kidney trouble. I gave a statement many years ago regarding the merit of this wonderful remedy. My cure has been a lasting one."

Price 60 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Bramel had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Residents of Long Branch believed they were just about to be attacked in force by bandits one day this week. They saw two men who acted MOST suspiciously. They avoided sidewalks and moved swiftly along, in a stooping position from time to time of shrubbery to another, sometimes venturing close to residents before their presence was discovered. The police were notified and took strenuous measures at once. A cordon was thrown about the whole neighborhood, and after watching for a short time, the signal was given and the police rushed the two men, overpowered them and carried them off in the patrol wagon. There, where the prisoners had gained their breath back, they explained that they were scouts of the State Forestry Department hunting for cocoons of the gypsy moth.

The head of a settlement house in lower Manhattan never loses her interest in the boys and girls who have been club members there. The other day she met one of them on the street. "Have you still got a chauffeur's job, Dan?" she asked. "No, ma'am," he replied. "I'm in business in Jersey." "Business is rather bad just now, isn't it?"

"It?" asked the social worker. "Business is bad," said Dan, smiling. "But, believe me, it's better than working."

Senator Medill McCormick landed in New York the other day after having spent nine weeks in Europe, where he talked associations of nations, disarmament, indemnities, foreign exchange, and several other fairly important world subjects with some pretty important people of various nations. He had disclaimed any such intentions, but the reports of his interviews over there had leaked out. So the New York reporters flocked to the pier. The Senator from Illinois listened as cordially as could be to the torrent of questions, then he said, "My boys, Europe is a wonderful place. Has any one any tobacco?" And no other word was got from him.

A goose race down Madison Avenue opened the poultry show at Madison Square Garden. The geese had two blocks kept free of traffic for them and a bunch of pretty show girls to drive them, and they squawked gaily in appreciation of both.

"Please, your honor, send me back to Sing Sing. I plead guilty, and anyway I'd like to go." Such was the plea of Benjamin Koch, arrested for burglary. "I was there for four years," he explained, "and I got used to it. I don't have to dodge automobiles up there and I see good movies at night." Magistrate Sweetser thought he could accommodate him. In fact he did.

ARE YOU CONGENIAL?

Thin-Blooded, Sick-Looking Men and Women Lack Enthusiasm

THEY NEED PEPETO-MANGAN

Red-Blooded, Healthy-Looking Folks Get Along Well Because They Feel Good.

There is a thrill in glowing good health. You see it in the enthusiasm and good cheer of congenial people. Fatigue, bad color, dull eyes and listless feeling do not attract other people. You are not congenial when you are run down.

Nearly everybody gets out of sorts occasionally. They are positively unhappy for weeks and constantly tired and gloomy. Perhaps you are that way and can see no reason why. But there is a reason. More than likely it is because of bad blood. Temporarily your blood needs help. Pepto-Mangan is a well-known and very successful remedy for poor blood. It supplies what your blood needs. You pick up and become your old self again; your blood works as it should, keeping you fresh and alert, congenial and happy and strong.

Pepto-Mangan is sold in both liquid and tablet form. Both contain the same medicinal ingredients. One is as effective as the other.

Buy Pepto-Mangan at your druggist's. Be sure the name "Gude's" is on the package. Without the name "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan. — Advertisement.

That thousands and thousands of dollars paid by American farmers for agricultural machinery to the McCormick International Harvester Co. went right back into charity was brought out in the recent serious illness of Mrs. Cyrus McCormick III at Chicago. Mrs. McCormick's charity was not the kind accompanied by a brass band, is the compliment paid by all mid-western philanthropic organizations.

MOTION IS TO BE FILED FOR ACQUIT- TAL IN WINNES CASE

Defense Will Ask For Peremptory Instructions at Completion of Prosecution's Evidence
In Court.

Harlan, Ky., Jan. 27.—Motion for an instructed verdict for Dr. H. C. Winnes, formerly of Cincinnati, was to be presented by his counsel today as soon as the commonwealth closed its case. Dr. Winnes, who was Kentucky state veterinarian, is charged with the murder of Lura Parsons, Pine Mountain Settlement School teacher.

The defense, it is said, will require two days in which to present its evidence in event the motion for an instructed verdict is overruled. It is expected the evidence will be unique in criminal case history, in that it will aim to prove another guilty of the crime and not try merely to break down the state's prosecution on circumstances.

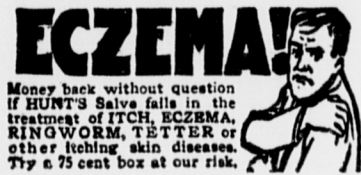

Winnes' counsel has contended from the start that convicts from the camp near Pine Mountain trail committed the murder. It will call a witness from the camp who, it is claimed, overheard another prisoner tell about seeing two negroes kill the teacher.

W. E. Fielding, residing near Dillon, Ky., testified yesterday he had followed what he supposed were tracks of the mule ridden by Dr. Winnes over the mountain trail the day of the murder. He said he located the spot where the mule had been tied to a tree—a short distance from the spot where the victim's body was found.

Other testimony showed that there are six mules at the prison camp with the same size shoe as that which Dr. Winnes rode.

THREE STILLS FOUND IN LEWIS COUNTY

Looks Like There Has Been Much
Moonshine Manufactured In Neighbor County.

The Vanceburg Sun says:
Thursday Sheriff Bertram and force went to Hamilton Branch on Kinney and captured a cold still on the farm of Chetty Rhoden. It was made out of an old steel barrel. The evidence about the place where it was found indicated that it had done duty. Mr. Rhoden was not at home, being reported in Carter county.

Another still was found at the mouth of Salt Lick Monday by Sener Hughes while getting wood. It was in a gunny sack and proved to be a milk can that was stolen from the station here and belonged to Mrs. Lesta Barnes of Sandy Springs and had been lost since June. The worm was part of an auto. This outfit, while very crude, showed evidence of use. It was turned over to Sheriff Bertram, who added it to his collection.

Claud Staggs, who lives near town, walked into town Saturday carrying a part of a still found on his farm. It had been doing duty and he had been losing corn to it, so he avers. The milk can, which was a part of the still belonging to Sam May of Petersburg, and had been stolen from the depot.

TWO NEGRO PRISONERS FLEE JAIL IN BOURBON.

Paris, Ky., Jan. 26.—Two negroes, Robert Green and Thomas Bradley, in jail here on charges of grand larceny, escaped early this morning. They tore a window sash from its frame, and, building a fire, heated the base of the limestone post between the two window openings. Then, knocking off a large piece of the stone, they moved it aside and squeezed through the opening into the yard. Scaling the wall they jumped to the ground, a distance of twenty-five feet.

TWENTY-FOUR HORSES BURNED TO DEATH IN FIRE.

Nicholasville, Ky., Jan. 26. — Fire originating in a dwelling at Wilmore, six miles south of this city threatened the entire west portion of the town. One dwelling, stock barn and coal shed were destroyed, and 25 horses perished. The dwelling, owned by Asa Jewell, of Lexington, and occupied by Joe Dulaney and family, was located within fifty feet of the Southern depot. The blaze spread rapidly and as there is no water protection in Wilmore, the large barn and coal shed of McClure & Jewell soon was ablaze. The barn contained a quantity of feed and about forty heard of horses and mules owned by Mr. Jewell and Price Penniston. Mr. Jewell is at present on a business trip in North Carolina and up to this time his partner, Mr. Penniston, has been unable to estimate the total loss, although the barn was valued at $10,000, one-third of which is covered by insurance. Twenty-five horses perished in the flames. Citizens formed a bucket brigade and saved the dwellings nearby.
